JOBS

- 1 I sit near the entrance to my office building, so I know most people who work for the company. I answer the telephone and transfer phone calls to the employee's offices. I greet visitors, and I also send out important emails, letter, and faxes.
- 2 I love going around talking to everyone and making sure that they have everything they need. When someone's ill, it's important to listen to them. They may feel frightened or lonely being away from home in a strange environment. It's my job to take care of them. I like everything about my job except the uniform – it's just so unattractive!
- 3 In my job, every day is different. One day I could interview a politician in London, and the next day I could fly to cover a story in Beijing. I spend a lot of time travelling, so I do most of my work on my laptop. I carry my camera everywhere – a good photograph can really help to get my message across.
- 4 Some nights, I hardly have time to drink any water during my six-hour shift. It's busy, it's crowded, and it's very, very hot! But I feel happy when a customer says how much they enjoyed their meal.
- 5 I often work a ten-hour shift, especially at peak times like Christmas and New Year. I like driving at night. The city looks different at different times of the day, and I find that really interesting. I usually try to have a conversation with every customer I pick.
